

WES CHILLER HUMMINBIRD

Reverb drenched and spun from pure Cali sunshine, “Humminbird” is the nostalgic single from So Cal artist Wes Chiller out Sept. 24th. Always drawing inspiration from life, Wes was sitting in his backyard strumming his ukulele when he found a riff that commanded his attention. While wondering what to write lyrics about, a hummingbird paid him a visit. The small, flighty beauty stirred him, bringing him back to visits with his grandmother as a small child. While his mom was always a busy bee, his grandmother taught Wes to slow down and appreciate the little things. She would lead him around her yard, pointing out different types of flowers and colors, but when hummingbirds would appear she would be most thrilled.

“She would be like ‘Wes, look, it’s a hummingbird!’ and I would get all excited to see this little bird flying at a million miles an hour, making countless stops,” Wes says. “Humminbird is a song about family. It’s a song about tradition and appreciation for the small things. I’ve dedicated this song to her and to all of us who have lost loved ones. Hopefully this can provide some healing for them, too.”

Wes recorded the song entirely himself, his third release as his own producer. This is his last single for a while, as he’s now focusing on a full-length album.
